Dear Warren

Huge thanks from us all at Comic Relief for an unforgettable Red Nose Day. The success of this year's campaign is down to the efforts of a whole bunch of great people and we just wanted to say that we really appreciate your part in making it happen.

As you may know by now, we broke our own record for money raised on the night – a staggering £37,808,564 and already a steady flow of cash has started to come in from all the hundreds of fundraising events around the country. We are all feeling very excited by what promises to be the best Red Nose Day ever. Audiences turned on in their millions. We had a 52% share at 9.30pm and a peak of 12.7 million viewers. Over 5 million people were still watching at midnight.

So now we turn to one of the most important tasks of the whole campaign – thanking everyone who made it possible.

We're inviting you to a special party at Café de Paris and although we do want to thank everyone, numbers are somewhat restricted, so we need to have your reply with names by Friday 15th April.

We have you down for 5 ticket (s). Please let us have names for the list by calling Lesley Cunningham on 020 7820 5511 or e-mailing replies@comicroelief.org.uk

ONLY names on the door list will be admitted.

We hope you can come. You don't have to feel guilty about having a night out on us because we will make sure that all the costs are covered without touching a penny of the money you helped us raise.

We look forward to seeing you there.

All the best,

Kevin Cahill
